ABOUT THE SCHOOL

Our focus is on ballet and jazz technique. In Kemptville students are given opportunities to perform in our December and May shows. Young dancers gain grace, poise, self-confidence and flexibility. They benefit from the muscle toning, fitness and self-discipline that dance offers.

The School started in 1970 as the Rideau School of Performing Dance and has been under the direction of Nancy Cowan since 1999. Classes are instructed mainly by Nancy.

Nancy has been dancing since the age of four. She was trained by Christiana Maier, previous director of the School. Nancy has furthered her training in Ottawa with Les Petits Ballets and The School of Dance and at various workshops at the National Ballet of Canada and through CDTA in Toronto. Nancy has been instructing in the Kemptville area for over 20 years. She also instructs at: Les Petits Ballets, the City of Ottawa and ballet for the competitive gymnasts of the Ottawa Rhythmic Gymnastics Club. She has done private coaching in body technique for the Quebec Special Olympics Inc.

Nancy's professional memberships include:

- Canadian Dance Teachers' Association
- NCCP Level 1 (National Coaching Certificate Program)
- NCCP Level II (Theory)
- Canadian Dance & Dance Sport Council
- Canadian Dancesport Federation

Classes are also taught by Jennifer Rushton and Heather Moulton. Jennifer was a competitive jazz dancer and has been dancing since she was three. She has been with the School since 2001. She has been assisting and instructing classes since 2002. Heather started dancing at the age of five. She has been training for CDTA membership. She joined our School in 2004 and has been teaching classes since that time.
